

MALCOLM MCKINNON www.recklesseye.com email: malcolm@recklesseye.com

Malcolm McKinnon is an Australian artist, filmmaker, writer and ghost-wrangler working mainly in the realms of social history and multi-media. His work characteristically mines under-valued residues of living memory and celebrates distinct local vernacular. Much of his work is produced with and for rural and regional communities.

Film & multi-media projects (selected):

* Close to the Bone: documentary film and multi-media project exploring stories of conflict on the pastoral frontier in colonial South Australia, in collaboration with Jared Thomas and the South Australian Museum, 2019 – 2022. (ABC TV broadcast and streaming, July-August 2022)

* Miner Poets: Radio documentary and short film for ABC Radio National, 2021. See: <https://www.abc.net.au/radionational/programs/the-history-listen/miner-poets/13482036>

* Geelong Digital Outdoor Museum: creating and curating content for virtual environments revealing hidden histories (collaboration with MinDLab at Deakin University), 2021. See: <https://gdom.mindlab.cloud>

* Swanston & Flinders: a short film about Melbourne's most famous location, developed for the City of Melbourne in collaboration with Melbourne History Workshop at Melbourne University, 2019.

* Cannery Stories: a series of short films about working lives around apples, especially at the Cygnet Cannery in Tasmania's Huon Valley. Produced for Port Cygnet Cannery & Viking Films, 2019

* Unanchored World: a short documentary film about art and life on an international container ship, produced in collaboration with artist Stephen Eastaugh, 2019. See: <https://vimeo.com/304294346>

* Daylesford's Children, Lost and Remembered; A short film for Daylesford & District Historical Society, exploring the contemporary resonance of an infamous historic event, 2017

* Ripples of Wartime: A series of twelve short films exploring lasting legacies of the Vietnam War from a diverse range of perspectives, (Brink Productions & Australian War Memorial) 2017 See: <http://www.brinkproductions.com/productions/ripples-of-wartime>

* This is a Border(town): Multi-media work about the experience of migrants and refugees in a South Australian country town, 2016 See: <https://thedirtsa.com.au/a-new-life-in-a-new-town/>

* Reinventing the Brass Band – the story of an arcane civic institution given new life, 2016 See: www.cv.vic.gov.au/stories/creative-life/reinventing-the-brass-band/

* The Farmers' Cinematheque: One-hour documentary interpreting material from a remarkable archive of historic films by a family of Wimmera farmers, 2015 See: <http://www.the-farmers-cinematheque.com>

* History SA & Country Arts SA: Telling Our Stories. Creation of series of short films and related media telling stories of resonant historical legacies across the Alexandrina region, South Australia, 2012 – 2014 See: <https://vimeo.com/showcase/6976300>

* Making Dust – a half-hour documentary for ABC Television Arts, initially broadcast in 2013.

* Centenary of Canberra: One River. Creation of series of short films telling stories of connection and interconnection across various locales within the Murray Darling Basin, 2012 – 2013 See:

www.youtube.com/playlist?list=PLcYnGfazSDNZZHbJQveabNjDXJtCbN5Jh

* Culture Victoria: Wimmera stories. Creation of three short films and related media telling unlikely stories of industrial heritage legacies in the towns of Dimboola, Nhill and Murtoa. 2012. See: www.cv.vic.gov.au/stories/wimmera-stories-the-dimboola-banner-communicating-history/

* South West Arts: Hit me on the head with a raindrop. Filmmaker-in-residence project in Moulamein, NSW, creating a 15-minute documentary about drought and resilience, 2011. See: www.youtube.com/watch?v=9uEPC6563Is&feature=youtu.be

* Regional Arts Victoria: Illuminated by Fire. Series of short films revealing diverse stories of living with and understanding the role of fire in a range of Victorian locales, 2010 – 2011. See: www.cv.vic.gov.au/stories/illuminated-by-fire/

* Reconciliation South Australia: For Love of Country – a film about the service and experience of South Australian Aboriginal military veterans, 2011. See: <https://vimeo.com/showcase/2862334/video/94472928>

• Seriously Singing – half-hour documentary for ABC Television Arts, initially broadcast in 2011. See: www.roninfilms.com.au/video/858/0/6377.html

• Stories of the Goldfields: Short films relating stories triggered by remarkable collections in local museums in the central Victorian Goldfields, produced for the Culture Victoria web-site, 2011. See: www.cv.vic.gov.au/stories/the-cycling-wedding-photographer/

• No Flicker Films: Stories of the Gaiety. Series of short films interpreting memories of the Gaiety Theatre in Zeehan, Tasmania, for permanent exhibition at the West Coast Heritage Centre, 2011.

• City of Great Geelong: Memory Bank - ongoing project to record personal stories of changing places across Geelong and surrounding areas, 2008 – 2010.

Every Dish Tells a Story. Filmmaker in residence project in Quorn, SA, creating films about cooking with feral foods, 2010. See: www.everydishtellsastory.com.au/?p=576

• Environment Victoria and the Murray Darling Basin Authority: Gunbower-Koondrook-Pericoota Storylines and Hattah Storylines, digital storytelling projects to collect and disseminate personal stories of connection with iconic Murray River wetlands, 2008 - 2009.

• Marree Arabunna People's Committee: Growing Up Two Ways – creation of six short films recording stories of life at Finniss Springs Aboriginal Mission (in collaboration with Reg Dodd), 2008

• South Australian History Trust: Making Cars @ Tonsley Park – short film documenting the closure of the Mitsubishi car manufacturing plant in Adelaide, produced for exhibition at the National Motor Museum, Adelaide, 2008. See: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=EHYEt7ARWME>

• South Australian History Trust and Australian Department of Veteran's Affairs: Defining Times – short film presenting South Australian stories of the Vietnam War and its aftermath, 2008

• Nowa Nowa Community Development Group: Precious Little – short films about the culture of gleanings, improvising and making do in a small community in East Gippsland, Victoria, 2007. See: www.youtube.com/watch?v=UC7xqJGPLJg

• Mildura Arts Centre and Museum Victoria: Blandowski's Specimens – short film about the legacies from an 1857 scientific expedition to the Murray and Darling Rivers, 2007

- Victorian Country Football League and State Library of Victoria: Football Stories from Country Victoria – artist in residence project producing short films and multi-media material for broadcast, DVD and on-line exhibition, 2006 – 2007. (Winner of 2008 Victorian Community History Award: Audio-Visual Multimedia) See: www.pictures.libraries.vic.gov.au/countryfootball/
- Nukunu Peoples' Council and Melrose & Districts History Society - Nukunu: Stories of Heritage & Identity, a collaborative project to create a series of short films and related interpretive materials for permanent exhibition at Melrose Museum & Heritage Centre, 2004 – 2006
- Murray Arts Inc: Stories of the Upper Murray – project with community museums and local filmmakers in north-east Victoria, producing series of short films inspired by significant historic artefacts, sites and events, 2005.
- Port Pirie Regional Art Gallery & AusBulk Ltd, SA: Talking Silos – project with farmers and grain industry bodies leading to public art projection events and multi-media exhibition, 2003 – 2005
- Triggered Stories – project with five regional museums in South Australia & Victoria, developing multi-media installations to present local stories triggered by historic artefacts 2002 – 2006. (Project supported by an Australia Council Creative Fellowship, 2002 - 2003)
- Mackay Regional Tourism & Development Board: Stepping Out of the Shadows, a short documentary for permanent exhibition at the Australian South Sea Islander Meeting House, 2002

Curatorial projects (selected):

- * City of Melbourne: WE PROTEST! – exhibition for City Gallery at Melbourne Town Hall, exploring the history of public protest in the streets of Melbourne, 2018. See: www.melbourne.vic.gov.au/arts-and-culture/city-gallery/exhibition-archive/Pages/we-protest.aspx
- * Nyrstar Metals and Port Pirie Regional Art Gallery: Transportation & Transformation – a social and pictorial history of Port Pirie and the Port Pirie Smelters, 2017
- * Centenary of Canberra: One River, a multi-site and on-line exhibition and series of symposia sharing stories of connection and interdependence across the Murray Darling Basin, 2012 – 2013
- City of Greater Geelong: Memory Bank, an exhibition and web-site presenting personal stories of change across a range of Geelong localities, National Wool Museum, Geelong, 2008
- City of Melbourne: Walk, Talk & Chalk, an exhibition about the history and culture of parking enforcement, presented at City Gallery, Melbourne Town Hall, 2007 See: www.melbourne.vic.gov.au/arts-and-culture/city-gallery/exhibition-archive/pages/walk,-talk-and-chalk.aspx
- Horsham Regional Arts Association: Dam Fine Yarns, a community writing project engaging communities across the Wimmera and Mallee, 2005
- Australian Centre for the Moving Image, Melbourne: Memory and Place project, curating material for multi-media installation in ACMI Screen Lounge, 2002 – 2007
- Marree Arabunna Peoples' Committee: Touring photographic exhibition Working Together – Stories of Aboriginal Involvement in the Overland Telegraph & the Old Ghan Railway. (Tandanya Aboriginal Cultural Institute and other venues.) A collaboration with Reg Dodd, 2001